San Francisco Payroll Overview (2011–2014)

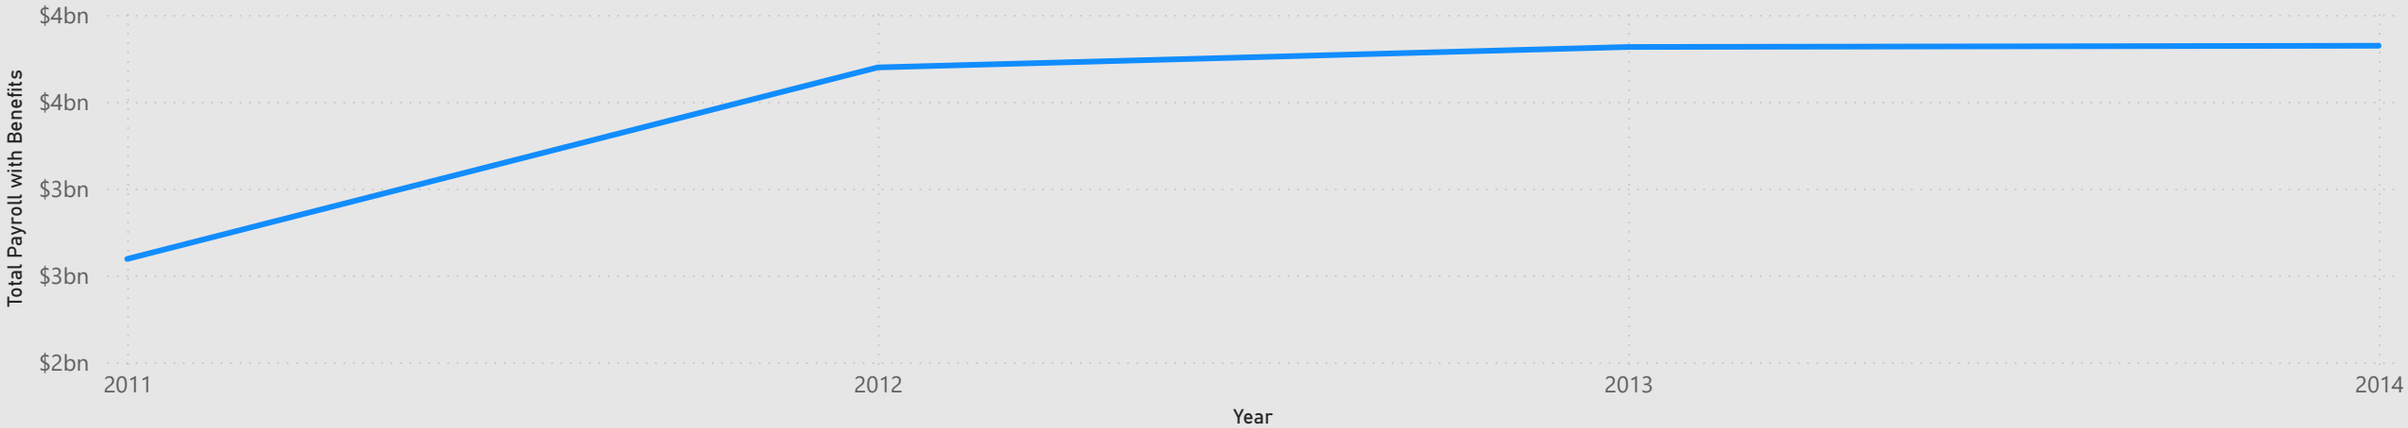
Overview of payroll, benefits, and workforce distribution across San Francisco agencies

Year

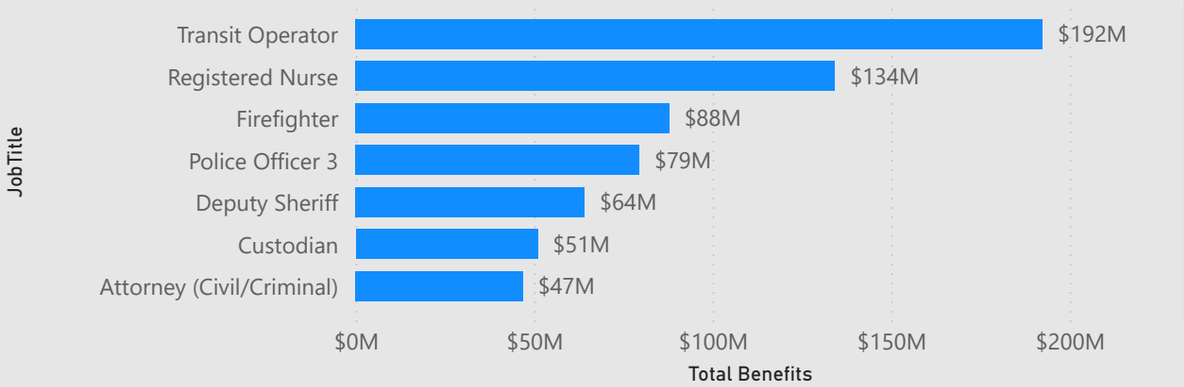
Select all | 2011 | 2012 | 2013 | 2014

$11.11bn	$2.81bn	$13.93bn	149K	$66.33K
Total Payroll	Total Benefits	Payroll + Benefits	Employee Count	Average Base Salary

Total Payroll with Benefits by Year



Benefits by Job Title (Top Roles)



Payroll by Job Title (Top Roles)

Insights: Total payroll with benefits increased steadily from 2011 to 2014*, reaching approximately* $3.8B in 2014. Benefits data in 2011 is not recorded in the dataset, which affects early-year comparisons. Overall growth is driven by increases in payroll and benefits contributions, reflecting rising compensation costs and workforce changes over time.

Payroll & Benefits Detailed Analysis

Breakdown of payroll and benefits by job title, and agency

Insights: Payroll varies significantly across job titles, with high-cost roles such as Firefighter, Registered Nurse, and Transit Operator driving total payroll*. In contrast, lower-cost roles, such as* Orthopedic Technician I and Warehouse Worker, contribute minimally, indicating a highly concentrated payroll structure dominated by a small number of key occupations.

Payroll Comparison Dashboard

Explore payroll distribution across agency, job titles, and years

Payroll View

Agency | JobTitle | Year

Total Payroll with Benefits ($) by JobTitle

Insights: Total payroll in San Francisco shows steady growth from ~$2.6B in 2011 to ~$3.8B in 2014*. The top 10 job titles, including* Transit Operator($795M), Registered Nurse ($697M) and Firefighter ($543M*), account for the majority of total payroll. In contrast, lower-ranked roles such as* Orthopedic Technician I, Warehouse Worker, and part-time or temporary positions contribute minimally, highlighting a highly concentrated payroll structure driven by a small number of key occupations.

Payroll Simulation Dashboard

Simulate overtime changes and measure their impact on total payroll

OVERTIME INCREASE %

10%

$14bn	$75.31M	0.5%	$13.93bn
Adjusted Payroll	Variance Amount	Variance %	Total Payroll With Benefits

Original Payroll, Adjusted Payroll and Variance Amount by Year

Insights: Increasing overtime results in a proportional rise in total payroll. For example, a 10% increase in overtime leads to approximately ~$75.31M additional payroll, representing a 0.5% increase. High-overtime roles, such as Firefighter and Emergency services, are the primary contributors to this variance*. This scenario highlights how overtime policy changes directly impact payroll costs.*

Payroll Forecast & Trend Dashboard

Projecting payroll trends for the next two years and highlighting high-cost roles

Total Payroll with Benefits by Year

Insights: Payroll is projected to continue rising over the next two years, reaching approximately ~$4.28B in 2015 and ~$4.65B in 2016. The confidence interval indicates a potential range of ~$3.49B - $5.08B (2015) and ~$3.83B - ~$5.47B (2016), reflecting forecast uncertainty. This upward trend aligns with historical growth, with high-cost roles, such as Firefighter and Head Attorney positions*, will continue to be main drivers of total payroll.*